

No refund or credit will be issued if you cancel less than one week before your production begins.

No refund or credit will be issued once casting is announced.

We are not able to issue refunds if a student does not enjoy the production experience. Tuition for productions or workshops cannot be transferred to any other programming.